2.0 PROHIBITION

2.1 No person shall operate a additional residential unit or permit the occupancy of a additional residential unit unless such additional residential units has first been registered within the City in accordance with this By-law.

3.0 REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

3.1 Every owner of a house containing a additional residential unit shall complete and submit:

- a) A Building Permit for any new construction of a additional residential unit, or;
- b) When an owner can provide proof of legal non-conforming status, an application for registration in a form prescribed by the Registrar containing the following information:
  1. Name, address and phone number of the owner;
  2. Name and phone number of occupants of each unit;

3. Property address, roll number and legal description;
  4. Permit number [if applicable] and date of first occupancy of original dwelling unit;
  5. Permit number [if applicable] and date of first occupancy of second dwelling unit;
  6. Property sketch showing dimensions of the property, location and setbacks of all buildings and location and dimensions of parking spaces; and
  7. Floor plan sketches showing all walls, doors, windows, stairs, kitchen facilities, bathroom facilities, heating systems and smoke alarms.
- 3.2 Every Owner shall submit payment of all applicable fees with the Registrar as set out in the City's Fee's By-law at the time of the application.
- 3.3 Every Owner shall ensure the additional residential unit to be registered is in compliance with the standards set out in:
- a) The City's Zoning By-law as amended;
  - b) The Ontario Building Code, Ontario Regulation 163/24 as amended;
  - c) The Ontario Fire Code, Ontario Regulation 213/07 as amended; and
  - d) The City's Property Standards By-laws, as amended.
- 3.4 The Owner shall provide all information as requested and required by the Registrar for the Registrar to verify the compliance of the additional residential unit with the City's Zoning By-law.
- 3.5 The Owner shall ensure that an additional residential unit is inspected to confirm compliance with the standards listed in Section 3.3 of this By-law.
- a) For new constructions related to a Building Permit an inspector will be from Building Services.
  - b) For legal non-conforming units an Inspector will be from Barrie Fire and Emergency Services and Enforcement Services.
- 3.6 Where it has been determined the additional residential unit is not in compliance with the required standards, the Owner shall make the necessary repairs to comply with the required standards and arrange for a re-inspection by the appropriate Inspectors.

4.0 DUTIES OF THE REGISTRAR

- 4.1 The Registrar shall receive applications with the appropriate information and fee for the registration of a additional residential unit.
- 4.2 The Registrar shall determine by examination of the information submitted with an application, whether the proposed additional residential unit is in compliance with the City's Zoning By-law, as amended.
- 4.3 The Registrar may contact the Owner to make any enquiries deemed necessary and may further require the furnishing of any information necessary to determine compliance with the City's Zoning By-law, as amended.
- 4.4 The Registrar shall notify the Inspectors of the Barrie Fire and Emergency Services, Enforcement Services and the Building Services of every application for registration that complies with the City's Zoning By-law, as amended.
- 4.5 Upon being notified by the Inspectors that a additional residential unit complies with the standards listed in Section 3.3 of this By-law, the Registrar shall record the municipal address in the Registry.
- 4.6 Upon recording a additional residential unit in the Registry, the Registrar shall send written notice advising that the house is now registered with the City as having additional residential unit to the following:
  - a) The Owner;
  - b) All applicable Emergency Service Providers;
  - c) Building Services;
  - d) Waste Management and Environmental Sustainability;
  - e) All applicable Utility Companies;

- f) Canada Post
  - g) School Boards;
  - h) Municipal Property Assessment Corporation (MPAC); and
  - i) Electrical Safety Authority (ESA).
- 4.7 A additional residential unit will be registered by the Registrar when the Registrar is satisfied that the additional residential unit complies with the requirements of this By-law.
- 4.8 The Registrar shall maintain and keep record of all applications and registrations for additional residential unit including the public registry.

5.0 REFUSAL AND REVOCATION OF REGISTRATION

- 5.1 The Registrar may refuse to register any additional residential unit if the owner has failed to comply with the requirements of this by-law.
- 5.2 A additional residential unit, once registered, remains registered without payment of any renewal or other fees, unless the registration is revoked.
- 5.3 The Registrar may revoke the registration of any additional residential unit which:
- a) At any time after being registered, fails to comply with the standards set out in Section 3.3 of this By-law;
  - b) Was issued based on mistaken, false or incorrect information or documentation; or
  - c) Was issued in error.
- 5.4 Where the Registrar refuses or revokes the registration of any additional residential unit, the Registrar shall send written notice by regular mail to the Owner of such additional residential unit advising such Owner of the refusal or revocation and the reasons therefore. Copies of the written notice shall be provided to the parties listed in Section 4.6 of this By-law.
- 5.5 The Owner may be entitled to a partial refund of the registration fee if, upon refusal of an application, and in the opinion of the Registrar, the processing and inspection costs of the application are less than the fee paid.
- 5.6 Where the refusal or revocation is due to a contravention of the standards listed in Section 3.3, the Inspectors may take steps to enforce said regulations as they deem necessary under the respective regulations.
- 5.7 Where the Registrar revokes the registration of any additional residential unit, the Owner may re-apply for registration once all corrective measures have been taken to come into compliance with all applicable by-laws or legislation. All fees and inspections shall be applicable.
- 5.8 The Registrar shall revoke the registration of any Additional Residential Unit(s) that are legally removed, converted or demolished through a Building Permit application.

6.0 INSPECTION PROCEDURES

- 6.1 The right of entry onto a property or into a dwelling unit shall be as authorized by the legislation respecting the standards prescribed in Section 3.3 of this By-law.
- 6.2 Except under the authority of a search warrant issued under section 439.(1) of the Municipal Act, 2001, an Inspector shall not enter or remain in any room or place actually used as a dwelling without requesting and obtaining the consent of the occupier, having first informed the occupier that the right of entry may be refused and, if refused, entry made only under the authority of a search warrant as per Subsection 437 of the Municipal Act, 2001.
- 6.3 No person shall hinder or obstruct, or attempt to hinder or obstruct, an Inspector carrying out an inspection hereunder as per Subsection 426.(1) of the Municipal Act, 2001.
- 6.4 The Inspector shall notify the Registrar when an inspection confirms the additional residential unit appears to be in compliance with the regulations and standards under the Inspector's jurisdiction.
