

The Nine Mile Portage Heritage Trail

MAP

Trail Markers

This trail marker with the white centre indicates the location of the public recreation trail. Due to development and private property it is impossible to follow the actual historic Nine Mile Portage route, but the trail attempts to follow it as closely as possible.

This trail marker with the golden centre indicates that you are now on the actual historic Nine Mile Portage route, where the new recreational trail is able to overlap with the historic portage.

