Please note, this document is from 2023.

The 2023 exhibition is no longer on display. The information below is available for reference of the past Brightening Barriers exhibition.

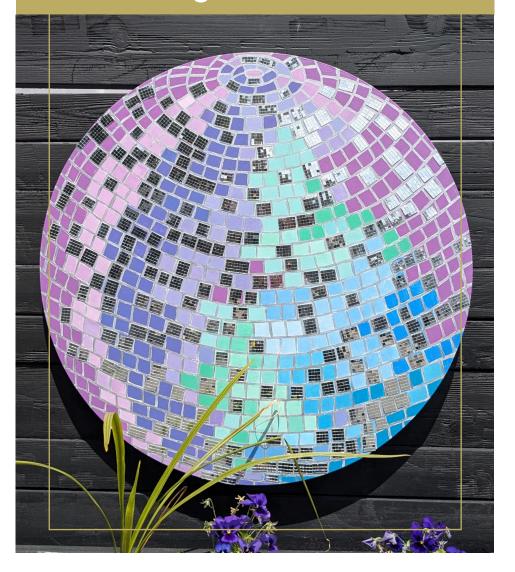

A series of videos documenting the 2023 exhibition can be found at tinyurl.com/ bbyoutubeplaylist or via the QR code below:

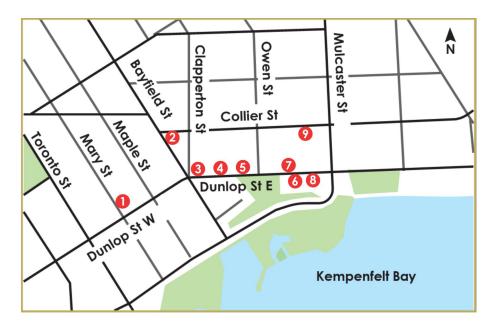

Brightening Barriers

Artist Designed Patio Enhancement

Walking Tour Guide

Brightening Barriers 2023, organized by the Barrie Public Art Committee and the City of Barrie, is back for another season. This temporary public art project pairs local and regional artists with downtown business owners to create an artistic response on their seasonal patio fencing. On until September 29th.

THE NORTH

49 Mary Street

Downtown Disco Vivian Heliotis, 2023

Plywood, latex paint, polyurethane, mosaic glass mirrored tiles

MICHAEL & MARION'S

89 Bayfield Street

Garden Party
PRNT Collective, *2022 Legacy
Serigraph on wood panel

10 Dunlop Street East The Land Between Rama and Barrie I, *2021 Legacy The Birdbath Collaboration. Oil on aluminum

The Land Between Rama and Barrie II, *2021 Legacy The Birdbath Collaboration. Oil on aluminum

40 Dunlop Street East It's A Dog's Life Christina Luck, *2021 Legacy Acrylic porch paint on plywood

5 P ZZA

50 Dunlop Street East Hearts of the City Monica Loney, 2023 Plywood, latex paint, polyuethane

FLYING MONKEYS 6 CRAFT BREWERY

> 107 Dunlop Street East Ultra Pose Neil Smith, 2023 Printed ACM panel, latex paint

McREILLY'S PUB

82 Dunlop Street East Fishbowl Michael Ciesielski, 2023 Hand carved birch

125 Dunlop Street East

Window Watching Marne Grahlman, 2023

Plywood, latex paint, polyurethane

9 MACLAREN ART CENTRE*

37 Mulcaster Street (Education Room)

FREE!

MacLaren Youth, mentored by Clandestinos through the BRIGHT project, 2023

Acrylic and spray-paint on plywood

Artists were compensated for their work. The project was made possible by several sponsors:

JACKSON'S

Joan & Bob Gilroy Liz & Barry Peacock Podhrodsky Medicine Professional Corp.

To learn more about the artworks on display, visit "Brightening Barriers" via barrie.ca/PublicArt.

^{*}Previously located at Groovy Tuesday's Bistro.